Contemplative Outreach of St. Louis

As a non-profit spiritual community, Contemplative Outreach of St. Louis relies solely on financial support from members to allow us to continue operations. Your generous gifts are an important component of our financial health.

In addition to furthering Our Vision through teaching Centering Prayer and supporting those on the contemplative spiritual journey, the chapter has to pay for rent of a small office/storage space, our phone line, website, newsletters, offer small stipends for workshop and program presentations and provide partial scholarships to our events for those who ask.
